NOTES, QUERIES, AND REPLIES.

Most of our readers are doubtless aware that a Society has been formed for the purpose of printing English Parish Registers. The Hon. Secretary is Mr. E. A. Fry, 172, Edmund Street, Birmingham, and the Annual Subscription is a Guinea. We rejoice to hear that it is already being well taken up by subscribers. Its chief difficulty of course will lie in the fact that half the people who consult works of this kind consult them at the British Museum without buying them; but this is a difficulty attending all books which from their limited circulation are necessarily expensive. The Society hopes to issue five registers per annum at first, and ten times that number in the next six years: if this be really possible, even those interested only in what are generally considered the uninteresting counties may have a chance during the present generation. It is certainly irritating to be always, as most people are, in the position of seeing only one's neighbours' registers being printed, but this question of printing records, of all sorts and conditions, is really one of the most vital importance. There are many (and clear-headed, thinking men too) who believe that fifty years hence England will possess no records; that when Liberals and Conservatives have come to the end of their foolish struggle as to who shall give most to "the working man," and there is nothing more left to give, this working man will naturally turn upon the combatants, and, in the process of appropriating the rest of their property, will, as a matter of course, destroy what he regards as the title-deeds of the aristocrats. Perhaps our future Emperor may change all this! But who can tell?

The Vicar of Wenhaston, Suffolk, has now added a plate of the "Wenhaston Doom," to his excellent little account of the church, and is selling the book at One Shilling post-free, for the benefit of the Restoration Fund of his church. The picture was discovered in a curious way some three years ago. It was a representation of the Doom, and was painted on oaken planks cut so as to occupy the lunette formed by the chancel arch. The church being under repair, these planks were laid in the churchyard, where a shower of rain removed the whitewash that had covered them for more than 300 years, and revealed the original picture.

Mr. Geo. F. Tudor Sherwood, 99, Angell Road, Brixton, has conceived the useful idea of printing a list of Genealogical and Topographical Queries in alphabetical order. The first issue will appear in May next, and it is hoped to make it an annual publication. At least 1000 copies will be circulated, and each Querist will receive a copy. The charge for insertion of Queries will be 1/- per line. The idea seems to have several advantages, not the least of which is the introduction to each other of persons interested in the same family or place.

* * * * *

Hemington—Cooper. John Hemington was Mayor of King's Lynn in 1801 and 1812, and was married to Mary Cooper. I shall be grateful for the dates of their deaths, and for any other genealogical information. G. D. Lumb.

Cookson—Whitgift. In reply to a query as to the family of Henry Cookson, of Grimsby, who married a sister of Archbishop Whitgift, the following note of a final concord, from the records of the Corporation of Grimsby, may be of interest.

"6 Eliz. Henry Cowkson, querent, and John Whitgift, deforciant. The latter warrants against himself and his brothers William Whitgyft, George W., Richard W., and Geoffrey W."

Musgrave. In reply to Mr. Winder's query in Part III. of 1895, Mr. W. A. B. Musgrave, of Lincoln's Inn, has kindly sent us the following notes :—

It so happens that I have seen in Part III. a query which I am able to answer :—who was the father of Edward Musgrave, of Asby or Ashby? Oddly enough the answer appears in Part II. on page 93, in the will of Wm. Fairfax, of Bolton, though perhaps it is not made quite clear without other information which I happen to have acquired. In Additional MS. 32, 116, in the British Museum, which is a copy from the Townley Collection of Dugdale's Visitation of Westmoreland and Cumberland in 1664, this match and the children born of it are given in the pedigree of Fairfax, No. 57, thus—

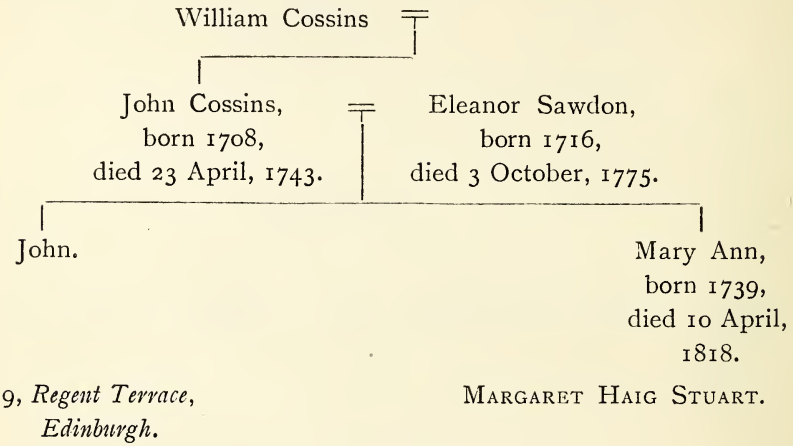
The Will of Richard, the second son, is to be found in P. C. C., 1685; both he and his brother Thomas appear to have died unmarried. Edward's son Richard married a wife Margaret, whose Will is also in P. C. C., 1745, and had an only child Barbara, who married Ralph Bourchier, M.D. See Nicholson and Burn's History of Westmoreland; parish of Asby Cotesford.

Readhead—Middleton. I enclose a rubbing of the arms and crest of the Readheads, from a tankard which was once the property of Mr. John Readhead, of Upleatham, who died in 1777. (Sable, a bend engrailed or, between two cotises argent; on a canton of the last a saltire gules. Crest, a sinister arm in armour proper, embowed to the sinister, holding in a gauntlet a sword, point downwards argent, hilt and pommel or. The colours are taken from Burke's Armoury.) Also an impression of the seal of my great-great-grandfather Middleton. (A lamb lying near a garb or sheaf, for crest; under it, the letter M.) Can any reader kindly give me any information about either of the families using these armorial bearings? I think the Middletons were from the neighbourhood of Brignal or Rokeby, about 150 to 200 years ago.

THOS. W. MARLEY.

Netherlaw, Darlington.

Cossins family. Some members of my family possess a good deal of old plate, memorial rings, &c., belonging to the Smith and Cossins families, formerly of York. I should like to know more of the latter family. All I know of them is as follows:—



Dickinson—Coates. Wanted, the marriage of Wm. Dickinson, of Thornton Watlass, co. York, with Elizabeth, only daughter of Robert Coates, of Burneston. Their eldest child was baptized at Copgrove, in 1717, and after her husband's death, Mrs. Dickinson married Mr. Timothy Hunton, at Burneston, in 1734.

Eure. Can any reader tell me which Lord Eure the following arms belonged to? They are painted on a piece of black canvas 18 inches by 16, which I picked up for a trifle the other day at a stall in York Market. EDITOR.

1. Quarterly or and gules, over all on a bend sable 3 escallops argent.—EURE.
2. Or 3 bars gemel azure, on a canton gules a cross flory argent.
3. Or a cross sable.—ATON.
4. Vert 3 lions rampant argent, crowned, collared, and chained or.—TYSON.

Crest. 2 Lions' gambs or supporting an escallop argent. Helmet in profile, showing 5 gold bars. Mantling red and blue. Supporters 2 leopards quarterly or and azure. Motto, (?) Vince ..... bonum.

Thompson, of Newcastle-on-Tyne. My grandfather Andrew Fitzgerald Reynolds married in 1833, Mary, daughter and co-heir of Caius Thompson, of Hull, and a pedigree in my possession of the Thompson family goes back as far as John Thompson, Merchant Adventurer of Newcastle-on-Tyne, who was living in 1658. The arms borne by the said Caius Thompson were as follows:—"Per fess ar. and sa., a fess embattled and counter-embattled between three falcons close, all counterchanged."

I should be greatly obliged if anyone could tell me if there is any connection between the above mentioned John Thompson and the Wm. Thompson who is mentioned in Vol. 51 of the Surtees Society's publications, page 57, as under:—

IV. Carr MS. A.D. 1466. Thompson, of Newcastle.

Wm. Tompson, Sherife. "Per fess ar. and sa., a fess embattled between 3 falcons close, all counter-changed; in sinister chief, an annulet azure."

Or, if they could give me any particulars of the pedigree of the Thompson family prior to John Thompson, who lived 1658. H.R.

SOME ACCOUNT OF THE PROBABLE ANCESTRY OF THE REV. CHRISTOPHER RICHARDSON, M.A.,

Trin. Coll. Camb., of Lascelles Hall,

AND

RECTOR OF KIRKHEATON, YORKS., 1646—1661.

The parentage of Chris. Richardson, of Lascelles Hall, who is often mentioned in the diary of the Rev. Oliver Heywood, has been for a long time a matter of conjecture.

Papers in his handwriting, said to have contained a history of his own times and some sermons, were preserved for some time by his descendants, but unfortunately were allowed to perish from damp some three generations back.

The Admission Books at Trinity Coll., Cambridge, to which one would first turn for the necessary information, are unhappily missing for the year 1633, when he matriculated and obtained a Sizarship.

It is also somewhat exasperating to find that Oliver Heywood, after recording his death in 1698, on one occasion sat down to write his friend's history, but was hindered from doing so by a neighbour's visit, and the intended work appears never to have been commenced.

It was supposed that Chris. Richardson must have had a father with some small means, firstly to provide an education which enabled him to take a scholarship at Trinity Coll., and secondly to enable him to find funds to purchase the Lascelles Hall Estate in 1661, for which he gave £720. No doubt the living of Kirkheaton helped him to save something towards this purchase, as we find among the Royalist Composition Papers that the Rev. Richard Sykes, late parson of Kirkheaton, had lost a good church living of £300 per annum; the value of this living had however, consequent upon the Civil War, fallen to £105 per annum in 1649, as appears by the Parliamentary Survey of that date preserved at Lambeth Palace, in which, curiously enough, by a clerical error the Rector is called Chris. Robinson.

We know from his age at death that he was born about 1618, but the only clue to his place of birth was obtained some 30 years ago from the late Mr. Wm. Swift, an antiquarian of Sheffield, who copied and extracted several documents lent to him by local people, among them being the following:—"1st July, 1658. Release from Thomas Richardson, of Creeton,* co. Suffolk, clothier, to Christopher Richardson, of Kirkheaton, clerk, and John Richardson, of Sheriff Hutton, husbandman, executors of the last Will and Testament of Frances Peckett, late of Sheriff Hutton, widow, deceased."

The Wills and Act Books both at London and York have been carefully searched, but no Will or Probate of Mrs. Frances Peckett has been found.

The Will, however, of Thos. Richardson, of Sheriff Hutton, dated 19 July, 1627, and proved at York in the following February, seems to suggest that the testator was father to Chris. Richardson the rector; he leaves a widow Frances, and seven children, all minors, viz.—John, Robert, William, Christopher, Thomas, Anna, and Frances; he leaves the tuition of his children to his widow, whom with his son John he appoints as his exors.; he states that he has given £50 to his son William as his full portion, to whom he also leaves £4 "to buy him a horse withal," so that testator may have been worth over £350.

If Frances Richardson his widow married secondly a Peckett, what more natural than to appoint her eldest son John Richardson and Chris. Richardson the rector, another son, as her exors., or to leave a legacy to her youngest son Thomas Richardson, of Creeting?

The second son Robert was buried at Sheriff Hutton, 3rd Dec., 1661, and in his Will dated 2 Sept. of the same year, he leaves most of his goods to the children of his eldest brother John, to whom he leaves 2s. 6d., and the same sum to his brothers Christopher and Thomas, probably to show he had not forgotten them; he does not however state where the last two were then residing; there is little room for doubt that they were none other than Chris. Richardson, who in May of the same year bought Lascelles Hall, and was therefore in no need of a larger legacy, and Thomas the clothier, of Creeting in co. Suffolk; his brother William he does not mention, but his two sisters who had married appear as Frances Rutter and Anne Goodlad.

* Creeting near Needham Market.

The parish register of Sheriff Hutton commences only in 1627, and between 1637 and 1650 there is a chasm of twelve years; the transcripts in the Archbishop's registry are believed to be in a similar condition. There are numerous entries referring to the Richardson and Peckett families, but no marriage of Mrs. Frances Richardson to a Peckett, or the burial of Mrs. Frances Peckett can be found, nor is the burial of Thomas Richardson in 1627 to be found.

As however the dates 1627, 1637, 1650, happen to correspond with a change of ministry in this parish, it is just possible that the missing entries may be found incorporated in the register of some neighbouring parish, if, as sometimes happened, two livings were then held by the same man.

As the Richardsons of Sheriff Hutton prove to have been great will-makers, and assuming that Thos. Richardson who died 1627 and Frances Peckett were the parents of Chris. Richardson, the rector of Kirkheaton, Yorks., it has been possible by these Wills alone to carry back the rector's pedigree for four generations without the assistance of a parish register.

His great uncle, Thos. Richardson, was appointed vicar of Sheriff Hutton by the Archbishop of York, in 1573, and by his Will proved in the Consistory Court, 1584, it appears that his brother Richard, who had predeceased him, was also a clergyman; he desires to be buried near his brother Richard, within his parish church of St. Helen, and leaves "the gowne which I were dayly" to his mother Elline.

There was another family of Richardson at West Lilling, one mile south of Sheriff Hutton, but in the same parish, from whom descended Chris. Richardson, who was born at West Lilling, and became Mayor of Hull in 1660 and again in 1678, and who in 1670 gave a close, "ye same called Nether Flatts, ye rent to be given in bread, being £2 12s., to ye poor of West Lilling and Sheriff Hutton," as recorded on the Charity-board in the church at Sheriff Hutton.

The two families were probably from the same stock at an earlier period, but the older Wills are not sufficiently explicit to prove the exact connection.

Elline Richardson, the great grandmother of the Rev. Chris. Richardson, seems however to have been one of the West Lilling family.

The earliest Will found is that of John Richardson, of Lilling, in 1506.

The writer would be extremely obliged to any member of the family, in or near Sheffield, who may still be in possession of the original release dated 1st July, 1658, under the Will of Mrs. Frances Peckett, for a full copy of that release, as in all probability the relationship of the parties to it would be clearly stated.

The family from whom Mr. Wm. Swift borrowed the various documents—chiefly referring to the Rev. Chris. Richardson's second marriage to Hephzibah, a daughter of the Rev. Edwd. Prime, of Sheffield (one being a love letter to her)—may be the present representative of the Prime family or some connection.

A member of the Tyzack family, whose ancestor married a granddaughter of Chris. Richardson, knew Mr. Swift, and may have supplied him with the desired information.

ACT BOOKS OF THE PREROGATIVE COURT OF YORK.

These Act Books commence in 1624. Before that date, Prerogative Acts are to be found in the City and Ainsty Act Books. All Prerogative, as well as Exchequer Wills, before 1585, are included in the printed Indexes of the Yorkshire Archæological Society. There are no official Indexes of Wills for the years 1685, 1690-8 and 1699-1705, so that for these years the Act Books must be searched. Hence the reason for selecting this period for the following abstract; and the Prerogative Court is taken first, because Wills of Testators outside the Diocese, but within the Province of York, and of Testators having bona notabilia (or effects above the value of £5) in divers jurisdictions within the Province, were proved in this Court.

DIOCESAN REGISTRIES.

ELY.

The whole of the Records of the old Diocese of Ely, which, until 1837, consisted of the County of Cambridge (with the exception of one parish which was in the Diocese of Rochester, and twelve which were in that of Norwich), are now preserved in the Muniment Room of the Bishop's Palace at Ely, and are calendared in detail in a volume entitled "Ely Episcopal Records," printed in 1891, at the expense of the present Bishop, Lord Alwyne Compton, who stands pre-eminent amongst English Bishops in his desire to encourage and assist the labours of literary and antiquarian enquirers. The following are the principal classes of records :—

Bishops' Registers 1337—1351, 1374—1412, 1444—1478, 1486—1495, 1515—1600, 1702 to present time. All Wills and Marriage Dispensations printed in the Calendar; also the Institutions of Clergy during the vacancy of the See, 1581—1600, from the Registers of the Archbishops of Canterbury.

Miscellaneous Registers, including the old Coucher Book of Ely, &c.

Transcripts of Parish Registers from 1599. (150 pages of excerpts from these printed.) Terriers from 1615.

Registers of Marriage Licences and Administrations 1562—1620, 1660—1878 (1562—1582 printed in the Calendar.)

Marriage Register of Ely Chapel, Holborn (printed in the Calendar).

Visitation Books, 1506—1879. Court Rolls, Hundred and Halmote Rolls, from Ed. I. Consistory Court Books, 1378—1807. Plea Rolls and Gaol Delivery Rolls, from 2 Hen. 6. Sessions Rolls, from 1637. Bailiffs' Rolls, Rentals, and Accounts, from 30 Ed. 1. Coroners' Inquests, 1608—1776.

The following notice as to fees is prefixed to the Calendar :—

"The Bishop wishes it to be understood, with regard to the Records here calendared, that searches for Literary and Antiquarian purposes (which his Lordship desires especially to encourage) may be made free of charge, on application in writing, addressed to his Resident Chaplain, The Palace, Ely.

Applications to search for Legal or Business purposes should be made to the Registrar, Diocesan Registry, Ely."

ST. PETER'S, YORK.—SCHOOL REGISTER.

It was intended to publish this register in a separate volume, but it commences at such a miserably late date, that we have decided to print it here in instalments, in the hope that it may be supplemented by notes from any readers who possess information either as to scholars before the date of the register, or as to the career of any of the scholars since. It may then be possible to compile a volume worthy of a school founded in the eighth century, as this was; but it is a "far cry" from the eighth century to 1828.

YORK MARRIAGE BONDS.

The Marriage Bonds in the Archbishop's Registry commence in 1660, the earlier ones being traditionally said to have been made away with by Mr. Paver, formerly a clerk in the Registry, whose abstracts of earlier bonds are being printed in the Yorkshire Archæological Journal. There is also in the Registry a portion of a Marriage Act Book, for about the year 1620. The following selections are chiefly of such names as are known to us to be of interest to subscribers, and of names belonging to other counties; purely Yorkshire bonds would, of course, be naturally sought for here, and it would be impossible to deal with them within the limits of space afforded us, for many of the annual bundles contain 500 or more each. The affidavits or allegations begin to be filed with the bonds in 1733.

Daur-in-law, Lady Cicely Bindlose. Proved at York, 13 October, 1630. [xli., 209.]

NOTES, QUERIES, AND REPLIES.

We hope shortly to print the Parish Register of the little village of Clay Coton in Northamptonshire, which commences in 1542, and which the Rev. Gordon H. Poole is kindly transcribing for us. The present population is only 97, so that the Register will probably not occupy much space, and every Register printed is "one more to the good."

Mr. G. Marshall writes to point out that the Calendar of Feet of Fines for Essex, mentioned at page 189 of the Northern Genealogist for 1895, is being compiled by him, and not as there stated.

* * * * *

We much regret to hear of the deaths of Mr. Justin Simpson, of Stamford, and of Mr. T. T. Empsall, President of the Bradford Historical and Antiquarian Society. Both had for many years done most useful work in their respective localities, and will be a great loss to the Antiquarian World.

Canon Nevile, Lindum Terrace, Lincoln, would be much obliged to any reader who can tell him to what families the following arms belonged. He can find neither in Papworth's Armorials.

1. (Dexter.) Sable, a fess argent, in chief a covered cup between 2 mullets or, impaling Gules, a saltire argent.
2. (Sinister.) Or, on a fess sable, 3 annulets of the field, between 3 cross crosslets fitchée sable, impaling Nevile.

Hobson. In Middleham Church there is a tablet to "George Hobson, surgeon, ob. 25 Nov., 1808, aged 65, and Elizabeth his wife, dau. of the late John Buckle, esq., of Burton-in-Bishopdale, ob. 2 Jan., 1811, aged 69."

In Aisgarth Church is the following inscription to a son of the above, and his wife:—"Elizabeth Hobson, wife of John Hobson, esq., of Richmond, and dau. of the late Roger Swire, esq., of Cononley, near Skipton-in-Craven, obt. June 11, 1818, aged 54. Also of the above John Hobson, of Richmond, grandson of John Buckle, esq., of Sorrowsikes, died 22 April, 1823, aged 48."

Arms: 1 Gules, within a bordure engrailed or a lion rampant argent, tail forked (Hobson); 2 and 3 (Swire); 4 (Buckle.)

Can any reader oblige me with any information as to the family to which these persons belonged? J. W. MORKILL, Austhorpe Lodge, Whitkirk.

Upton Family. Any information about a family of Upton, of Toton, or Chilwell, co. Notts., circa 1750, is much desired. £2 will be paid for a copy of the Record of Baptism of Thomas Upton, circa 1714; and also for Record of his Marriage with Alice ..... ante 1752. Their son James was baptized at Attenboro' in 1752. Thomas Upton died in 1787, and his widow Alice in 1801. Copies of their Wills will be paid for. RUPERT UPTON,

3, New Square, Lincoln's Inn.

Whittingham, of Northumberland. Mr. A. A. Jones, 2, The Limes, Melville Road, Walthamstow, London, would be glad of any information as to a branch of this family which migrated to Shropshire. Also as to the history of the family about the time of Sir Robert Whittingham, who was knighted at the Battle of Wakefield.

Fairfax. A Certificate is required of the Marriage of Joseph Fairfax, Horse Guards, about 1730; also a Certificate of the Baptism of his son, William George Fairfax, born October, 1738. A Reward of Two Guineas will be paid for either of the said Certificates, or Three Guineas for both, on appplication to the Editor.

THE AYSCOUGH MONUMENTS

At Stallingborough, co. Lincoln.

By Lord Hawkesbury.

The following is an exact account of the monuments as existing in Feb., 1888. (The inscriptions are copied letter by letter.)

1. On a slab on the floor, just at the foot of the Altar step, are the figures in brass of a knight and a lady, and the matrix of a smaller brass (children) above their heads. On the knight's surcoat, 1, Ayscoghe; 2, Talboys; 3, Chavernill; 4, Cokefield. On the lady's dress, 1, a chevron between three mullets (Hilliard); 2, a bend sinister between six covered cups; 3, a fleur-de-lys between two bars. Out of the knight's mouth, on a scroll in black-letter characters, "Sancta trinitas Un^{s} deus miserere nobis." Out of the lady's mouth, on a scroll, "Libera nos famulos tuos o beata trinitas." On a brass plate at their feet,

"Ossa sb hoc gelido Willmi Milit' Ayscugh
Cui cõiũcta jacet sua M'geria pudica
M'more nõ p'uo munea' pressa jacent ffilia Roberti milit' hec hylyarde."

2. Great black and white marble monument against north wall of chancel. At the top, an ass passant. Under this crest, in small gold letters—

"Franciscus Ayscoghe eques avratvs
Pater infra posiũ Dni Edovarbi." (sic.)

Under this, the effigies, and under them, in capital letters—

"Profvit hic patria Franciscvs strenvvs almvs Bello mare svo pace svo ingenio."

On the panel beneath, also in capitals—

"Memoriæ Meritisq.

3. Against the north wall, under the last, are the marble effigies of a knight and lady, their feet resting towards the east wall of church. Below them, small figures of 6 sons on the left, and 6 daughters on the right. On the verge, below the large effigies, "Vxor tua vt vitis frvgefera erit in laterib' Dovs tvæ & filii tvi sicvs plātvtæ olivam in circvitv mensq tvæ Ecce sic benedicetvr vir qui tvmverit Dominvm. Psalm cxxviii." On the tomb lies a large shield, with quarterings, and an obelisk, broken off the mural monument above. The large shield is Ayscoghe (Quarterly of Six:—1, Ayscoghe; 2, Caythorpe; 3, Talboys; 4, Cokefield; 5, Chavernill; 6, Bolingbroke) impaling Quarterly quartered:—1st grand quarter, quarterly—1, Hansard; 2 and 3, Delamore; 4, Darcy. 2nd grand quarter, quarterly—1, Ayala; 2, Sanchia; 3, Blount; 4, Beauchamp. 3rd grand quarter, Hawley. 4th grand quarter, quarterly—1 and 4, Hutton; 2 and 3, Chancellor. The whole surmounted by a helmet, with wreath and crest, an ass's head argent.

4. On a slab partly concealed by the Altar, are the following brasses:—(a) On an oblong piece of brass, lying about loose, but which the Vicar promised me should be fixed in its place, and which exactly fitted the matrix at the south end of the slab, in capital letters,

"[H]ere lyeth bvried William Ayscvgh,
[Es]qvier, sonne and heire of Sr Edward Ayscvgh, Knight, who died on ye fowrth day of Febrvarie, in the yeare of ovr lord god 1610. Katherine his wife was one of the davghters of William Hennage of Hainton, Esqvier."

(b) On a small brass plate (north-east of matrix a on the slab) the kneeling figures of two daughters. Above them on scrolls, "Katherine" and "Hester." (c) On a small brass (parallel to b) the figures of two infants. Above them on scrolls, "[Willia]m," and "[Willi]am." The parts in brackets are gone. (d) At the north-west corner of the slab (nothing but a matrix left in north-east corner) the figure of a lady in brass (Katherine wife of William Ayscogh, and dau. of Wm. Heneage, of Hainton.) Her head and arms to the waist torn off, and lying about loose, but the Vicar promised me this also should be fixed in its place. Her feet are on a greyhound—the Heneage crest. The upper part, lying loose, exactly fitted to the rest. Query, whether the brass of her husband is lost, or only covered up?

WILLIAM CUTHBERT, ESQ.,

Recorder of Newcastle.

Will dated 24 July, 1746. Have given a bond to Stephen Coulson, of Newcastle, merchant, and Rd. Wharton, of Newcastle, gent., for payment of £2,000 to be laid out in lands according to settlement on my marriage with my first wife Jane, youngest daughter of John Stephenson, of Newcastle, merchant, deceased, which bond with other papers I delivered to Margaret Stephenson, widow, deceased, mother of my said wife, and is now in the hands of John Airey, esq., surviving exor. of her Will. I charge all my estate with payment thereof for the benefit of Margaret Cuthbert, my only child by my said first wife.

I give to my friends Thos. Clennell, late of Newcastle, but now of West Lilburne, co. Northumberland, esq., Thos. Rudd, of Durham, esq., and Ralph Hodgson, of Auckland Castle, co. Durham, gent., all that Castle called Witton Castle, and my manors and rectories of Witton-on-Wear and Hamsterley, co. Durham, and all the lands which Hy. Darcy, of Sedbury, co. York, esq., holds in trust for me in Witton, Hamsterley, West Auckland, and Bedburn, co. Durham, which I have contracted to purchase by articles of 16 Nov., 1743, from said Hy. Darcy, for £13,800 which I have paid; also Farrington Hall and lands in Silksworth, co. Durham; also the Angel Inn, in the Big-market or Oat-market in Newcastle, in occupation of Geo. Ord, surgeon, upon trust for my eldest son John Cuthbert in tail, with remainders to my 2nd and youngest son Wm. C., my brother Geo. C., and my nephew Geo. C. eldest son of my brother Rd. C. late vicar of Kendal, co. Westmoreland, deceased, successively in tail. £2,000 to be raised and divided between my said younger son Wm. and Philadelphia my dau. at 21. Brother Geo. Cuthbert, of Portsmouth, physician; sister Margt. ux. James Nelson, of London, sugar-baker, and sister-in-law Dorothy Cuthbert, widow of my said late brother the Rev. Rd. Cuthbert, £10 each. Residue to my wife Dorothy, extrix. and guardian of all my children during their minorities. Witnesses—Adam Askew, Sam. Hallowell, Geo. Cuthbertson.

Codicil. 18 Aug., 1746. Revokes remainder over given after remainder to son Wm., and gives same to daurs. Margaret and Philadelphia. Witnesses—Thomas Rudd, John Durance, Nichs. Greenwell.

Codicil. 26 Aug., 1746. Recites conveyance of 1 Aug., 1744, from Henry Darcy, esq., of the lands at Witton, &c., subject to certain provisoes. Trustees to reconvey same to Darcy on performance of said provisoes. Witnesses—Adam Askew, Sam. Hallowell, John Ord.

Proved at York, 15 May, 1747. [xci. 224.]

A Certificate or answere of all suche articles or decres as weare geven in chardge to be answered by vertue of a warrante from the Reverende father in god, the Bushop of Lincoln, to the Churchewardens and Sydemen of Luton dyrected, and at a certein place and tyme to be certified as by and in the sayde warrante more at lardge doth and may appere, made in writinge the twentith day of Aprill, A°. dm. 1574, and in the syxtenth yere of the reigne of o^r^ Sou'aigne Lady Elizabeth, by the grace of god, Quene of Englande, of Fraunce and Irelande, defendor of the faythe, &c., and accordinge to their chardge reddy to be delyvered.

Fyrst, the place where the roode stode was reformed in the first yere of the reigne of o^r^ Sou'aigne Ladye the Quenes ma^ty^ that nowe is. But long sithens (that is to saye) the twelveth day of Octobre, A°. dm. 1573, and in the fiftenth yere of the reigne of o^r^ Sou'aigne Lady Elizabeth, by the grace of god, Quene of Englande, of Fraunce and Irelande, defendor of the faythe, it was further agreed wth the vicar by the consente of George Rotherham, esquire, and fourtene or fiftene other of the cheifest of o^r^ p'oche (whose names bene herevnto subscribed) to please and contente our sayde vycar, that the uppermost creste shoulde be taken downe, whereunto the vycar agreed and referred yt to the discrecon only of the sayde Mr. Rotheram. To whom Mr. Rotheram answered and sayde, "Mr. Rose, if you shall thynke yt to be well at o^r^ nexte meetinge, upon further knowledge, soe yt shall continewe; if not, yt shal be altogether taken downe and a newe erected and redified in the same place without any your costes or charges." To whom Mr. Rose answered himselfe to be therew^th^ contented and hartely well agreed. Upon the agream^te^ the sayde Mr. Rotheram gave comaundem^te^ to one Thomas Robyns, one of the Churchewardens at that tyme, and then and there p'sente, that imediately that same weeke yt shoulde accordinge to their agream^te^ be taken downe, who then went to one Bunberry, a carpenter, wth in our sayde towne and requested him that the sayde creste mighte be taken downe before Wensday or Fryday then next followinge as the sayde Mr. Rotherham, o^{r} vycar, and the p'oche before had agreed. In the meane space the vicar not contented wth his first agrem^{te} wolde not suffer the sayde Bunberry to mende the p'ticon accordinge to the agream^{te} made, but before the daye appoynted, comaunded twoe or three of his owne servauntes wth axes, sawes, and other towles, to cut, sawe, spoyle, breake, and mangle the p'ticon betwene o^{r} churche and chauncell as yt evidently apereth. Also our cope and vestm^{tes} beinge five in number and appoynted to be solde were done accordingly, and the cope was solde to one John Daldron, of London, for xvi^{s}; thother foure vestm^{tes} were likewise solde to one Robte. Wynche, of London, aforesayde, for three poundes. Also upon comaundemente to vs geven, a byble was boughte in London of one White, and it was of the biggest volume and last impression accordinge to our chardge, w^{oh} cost xxx^{s}. And further, our p'ishioners beinge examyned of thother copes beinge eighte in number, Done answere that they were never founde as p'cell of the Churche goodes, but that Mr. Rotheram of righte oughte to have them.

ARCHIEPISCOPAL VISITATIONS

DIOCESES OF YORK & CHESTER.

These books commence in 1561, and usually comprise the old Diocese of York (that is to say, Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire, except, of course, the part of Yorkshire which was in the Archdeaconry of Richmond and Diocese of Chester); but they also include, as will be seen from the following notes, several visitations of the Diocese of Chester.

Visitation Book, 1561—1563. Apparently for the Diocese of York. No headings of Deaneries or Parishes. More in the nature of a Court Book than a Visitation, and therefore not searchable, except by going through it page by page.

Visitation Book, 1567. A similar volume, but arranged under Deaneries. (Diocese of York, including Notts.)

Visitation Book, 1567-8. A volume similar to the first.

Visitation Books, 1575. (2 vols.) This, and all the following vols., are arranged under Deaneries and Parishes, in the ordinary visitation form. This is for the Yorkshire portion, usually arranged under the following Deaneries:—York City, Ainstie, Craven, Pontefract, Bulmer, Buckrose, Dickering, Ripon, Snaith, Harthill, Holderness, Howdenshire, Ridall, Cleveland, Allertonshire, Doncaster. Chiefly presentments for defects in fabric and churchyard, incontinency, not coming to Church, &c.

Visitation Books, 1578. (2 vols.) Diocese of Chester, including the following Deaneries:—City of Chester, Chester, Wirrell, Bangor, Malpas, Middlewich, Nantwich, Macclesfield, Manchester, Frodsham, Warrington, Blackburn, and Leyland; and the Archdeaconry of Richmond, including the Deaneries of Amonnderness, Burrowbridge, Catterick, Copeland, Furness, Kendal, Lonsdale, and Richmond.

Visitation Book, 1577—1582. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York.

Visitation Book, 1586. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York.

Visitation Book, 1590. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York.

Visitation Books, 1590. (2 vols.) Diocese of Chester.

1594. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York.

1595. Notts., part of Yorkshire, and part of Diocese of Chester.

1595. Diocese of Chester, including Richmond Archdeaconry.

1596. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York.

1600. Two vols. One for Yorkshire, and the other for Notts.

1607. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York.

1615. Yorkshire portion of Diocese of York. Many recusants presented, and their ages generally stated. Also many such entries as the following:—"Bishopton, Sutton, and Clethrom (Ripon Deanery). Thomas Day for cominge with a corse from his owne hous with crosse towelles over yt, and goinge aboute the Markett Crosse out of ye way in July last. (Day says it was his wife, and others, who did goe in this wise without his privity," &c.) "Sawley. Ralph Gregg for marrying his Aunt at a Church called Cundall, viz., his ffather's sister." "Bagby. Leonard Thorpe, and Jane Richeson his wife, for that they were privately married by one Mr. Gregson, a suspended minister, in a morninge, and in a feilde."

1627. Diocese of York. Very full visitation. Great numbers of clandestine marriages. The following is a specimen of the presentment of Recusants:—"Gisbro'. Geo. Tockittes, of Tockittes, esq., æt. 60; Wm. Bailes, æt. 60; Margery his wife, æt. 59; Ursula wife of Anthony Bailes, æt. 30; Christ. Lowicke and Margery ux. æt. 60; Joseph Lowicke his son, æt. 18; Mary Piersley, æt. 30; Mary Jackson, and Margaret, wife of Ralph Harper, notorious recusants."

1630. Diocese of Chester, but not including Archdeaconry of Richmond.

1633. Diocese of York, including Notts.

1636. Diocese of York, including Notts.

1640. Deaneries of City, Ainsty, Bulmer, Craven, Holderness, Harthill, Howdenshire, Buckrose, and Dickering.

1662. Diocese of York, including Notts.

1663. Diocese of Chester.

1667. Buckrose, Dickering, Harthill, Holderness, Bulmer, Ridall, and Cleveland Deaneries.

1669-70. Diocese of Chester.

1674. Diocese of York.

1682. Diocese of York. Many Quakers and Papists presented.

1685—8. Dioceses of York and Chester.

1698—1716. Nothing but names and dates of Ordinations, &c., of Clergy. "Exhibit Book."

1712-3. Visitation Book. Diocese of York.

1714-6. Visitation Book. Diocese of York.

NOTES, QUERIES, AND REPLIES.

Mr. A. D. Weld French, of Boston, U.S.A., has had 525 copies privately printed of a handsome volume which he entitles "County Records of the Surnames of Francus, Franceis, French, in England, A.D. 1100—1350." It seems to be in reality a collection of all Francus, &c., references in the calendars of Patent Rolls, &c., printed in the Deputy-Keeper's Reports, but its arrangement under counties, and its excellent index, give it a much greater value than might be supposed possible from the nature of its contents.

* * * * *

Mr. George Jebb, of Boston, Lincolnshire, has kindly sent us his recently-issued "Guide to the Church of S. Botolph, with Notes on the History and Antiquities of Boston and Skirbeck," but has placed us in a somewhat embarrassing position by insisting upon having its faults pointed out. With most guides of the kind, this would be a task of no great difficulty, but in the case of this one—written by an educated man who evidently has his subject at his fingers' ends,—we are compelled to confess that, beyond a few misprints and the unwitting elaboration of a name in the preface, we have nothing but unqualified praise to give.

* * * * *

Mr. G. F. Tudor Sherwood has issued his promised list of Genealogical Queries, and with it a note of the antiquarian journals illustrating the various counties of England, which, to our own knowledge, has already proved of great service.

* * * * *

The British Record Society held its Annual Meeting at the College of Arms, on May 7,—Lord Amherst of Hackney, in the Chair,—when all the officers were re-elected, and the report and accounts, which appear to be very encouraging, were adopted.

In Memoriam

MAY 20, 1896,

THE REV JAMES RAINE,

Canon Residentiary of York.

We understand that the late Mr. Norcliffe's almost unrivalled genealogical collections for Yorkshire go, by his Will, to his successor at Langton Hall.

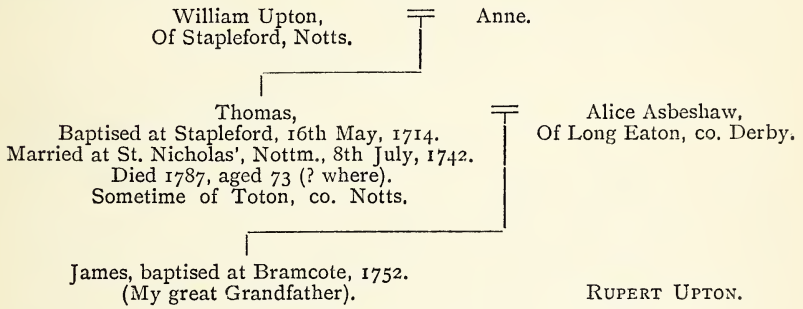
Eure Arms. In reply to the query on page 4 of the January part, the second quarter, usually blazoned Barry of six, or and azure, is De Aton, and the third quarter is De Vescie, not Aton. The supporters are wild cats. The motto is "Vince malum bono." These arms belonged to all the Lords Eure, the quarterings having all been brought in long before the creation of the peerage, by the marriage of Sir Ralph Eure, who died 10 March, 1422, with Catherine, daughter and co-heiress of Sir William de Aton, (summoned to Parliament as Lord Vesci, 43 Ed. 3,) by Isabel, daughter of Henry, 2nd Lord Percy. There is nothing in the description to fix the date by, unless the absence of the coronet indicates that it was prior to the grant of coronets to Barons by King Charles II.; we might then conclude that the arms belonged to Sir William Eure, 4th Lord, who succeeded his father in 1617, and died in 1646.

The arms as quartered above are those generally given for the Lords Eure, although in a M.S. in the British Museum (Add: M.S. 5504, f. 108b.), they are given as 1 and 4 grand quarters Eure, 2 and 3 grand quarters quarterly, 1 and 4 Aton, 2 de Vesci, 3 Tyson. The first Lord Eure had a grant of an additional crest, viz., a wild cat statant gard. quarterly or and az., claws, tongue, and ears gu. This crest and the supporters were probably allusive to his descent from a common ancestor with the Marquis of Clanricarde, whose crest is a wild cat, and whose ancestor, William de Burc, bore Quarterly or and az.; the connection being the presumed descent from two sons of John, Earl of Comyn in Normandy, son of Baldwin, fifth Earl of Flanders.

P.S.—After seeing the arms, I think there is little doubt that the canvas is the remains of one of the banners used at the funeral of William, 4th Lord Eure, who was buried at Old Malton, 28 June, 1646.

EURE.

Upton. I have been in communication with Dr. Marshall, who was good enough to furnish me with a copy of the Marriage Licence of Thomas Upton, and in consequence I have been able to obtain certificates of Thomas Upton's birth and marriage. The following shows the facts I have learned:—



Hanson or Hansam. In the history of Lincoln, printed by A. Stark in 1810, appear the names of Thomas Hanson sheriff 1537, a namesake sheriff in 1567, and mayor in 1574 and 1588, John Hanson sheriff in 1596, and Robert Hanson chamberlain in 1601.

In Gibbons' "Lincolnshire Marriage Licences" appears, "1621, July 28, Alex. Cusson, of Inglebye (Ingoldby), in S[axelby], yeoman, æt. 50, and Anne Hanson, of Lincoln, spinster, æt. 22. Application by Anthonie Walcot, of Lincoln, gent. [St. Peter at Arches.]"

In the "Douai Diary," "Thomas Hansam, latinized Hansamus, Lincolniensis, took the College Oath, Sept. 10, 1629, was ordained priest December 23 following, and on 16 April, 1630."

He had evidently received his other orders elsewhere, and passed hurriedly through Douai College.

Twenty-three years later, in the "Calendar of State Papers" (Domestic Series), about the Committee for Compounding, there is:

"1653, Dec. 16, Alex. Cusson, being a soldier in Capt. Elsmore's troup, in Col. Rich's regiment, begs to contract on the late Recusants' Act for the estate held for life by his uncle Thos. Hanson (of Lincoln), who has made over all his rights to petitioner."

"1654, 4 Jan., Thos. Hanson begs to contract for 2/3 of his sequestered estate."

"1654, 6 Jan., Fine £40 for an estate for life at 4 years purchase."

"1654, Feb. 17., the estate discharged, the whole fine being paid, and the first half before the order was given for stay of proceedings on the Recusants' Act."

Is it possible that, for all this period and perhaps longer, Fr. Thos. Hanson, although ready to suffer for the faith, his religion being evidently known, had contrived to conceal his priesthood, and so serve the Lincoln Mission? He is not mentioned by Foley (I think), nor have I seen other entries of him.

JOSEPH S. HANSOM,
27, Alfred Place West,
South Kensington, S.W.

Sharpe. William Sharpe, M.A., Univ. Coll., Oxford, who matriculated 13 May, 1743, aged 19, as son of John Sharpe, of Houghton, Durham, became Vicar of Long Burton, Dorset, in 1763, and died in 1783 away from Long Burton, and was buried in the North of England. I shall be glad to know the precise date of his death and the place of his burial. I have been unable to find his Will in P.C.C. or in the local Court exercising jurisdiction over Long Burton. C. H. MAYO, Vicar of Long Burton.

Burdekin. I wish to ascertain the parentage of Miss Elizabeth Ann Burdekin, of Yorkshire, who married in India, in 1794, Colonel Samuel Dyer, 10th Bengal Native Infantry. I have her portrait, that of a very handsome woman, painted in India, probably at the time of or soon after her marriage. C. H. M.

Hawkins—Dailley. Can any reader give me any particulars of the family of Thomas Hawkins, of King's Lynn, wine and spirit merchant, who died 1789, or of his wife Sarah, who died 1792, daughter of Samuel Dailley (? a Silversmith or Goldsmith, of Longacre, London)? They were married 19 Nov., 1738. Where? The dates are taken from a family Bible. R. P.

Nevile. Burke's Extinct Peerage gives the pedigree thus:—Ralph Nevile, 1st Earl of Westmoreland, had issue:—Sir John Nevile married Elizth. Holland (and so became patron of S. Nicholas, South Kelsey), and had issue:—Ralph, 2nd Earl, married (1) Elizth. dau. of Henry Hotspur, (2) Margt. dau. of Sir Regd. Cobham. But the Durham Inq. p.m. on Henry, Earl of Westmoreland, 1564, says, he is son of Ralph Earl of Westmoreland, son of Ralph Lord Nevill, son of Ralph Earl of Westmoreland, son of Thomas Nevill, son of John Lord Nevill, son of the above mentioned Ralph, 1st Earl of Westmoreland. This makes Ralph, 2nd Earl, great grandson of the 1st Earl—not grandson. Which is correct? H. C. B.

Hussey. Information is desired as to the parentage of John Hussey, of Honington, co. Linc., who bought Honington in 1583, and was buried there in 1587. He left Honington to Charles Hussey (son of Sir Robert), after Sir Charles Hussey. In his Will he speaks of him and very many other members of Sir Robt. Hussey's family, as his cousins. But I cannot make out who his father was. The Yorkshire Visitation of 1563 gives Sir William Hussey, the Chief Justice, a second brother Gilbert, who is said to have a son John, s. p. He would match well, but the sisters do not correspond, for while John, son of Gilbert, had two sisters—Jane ux. John Baude, and Anne ux. Bernard Angevine—John of Honington speaks only of his sister Agnes Townsend. She might indeed have been his wife's sister, and perhaps was, as he leaves her only a legacy of live stock; but it is strange, if he had sisters as above, that he should make no mention of them or their families in his Will, in which so many other relatives are mentioned. I have searched Mr. A. Larken's Collections, at the College of Arms, without success. R. E. C.

Fyssher. Wanted, the parentage of Simon (or Siegmond) Fyssher, who was admitted to his freedom at Hull by fine in 1439; he was a juror in 1458 (Lay Subs. Roll, $\frac{202}{133}$), and was buried in Trinity Church, Hull (See Will of his son Robert, York Prob. Registry, Vol. v., fo. 8).

Fairfax. A Certificate is required of the Marriage of Joseph Fairfax, Horse Guards, about 1730; also a Certificate of the Baptism of his son Wm. Geo. Fairfax, born October, 1738. A Reward of Two Guineas will be paid for either of the said Certificates, or Three Guineas for both, on application to the Editor.

KIRKSTALL ABBEY.

Amongst the Muniments of the Marquis of Ripon is preserved a 17th Century (or late 16th Century) MS. volume entitled, "Fundatio Abbathiæ de Kirkestall." The writer of the following notes is not sufficiently acquainted with the history of the Abbey to be able to say whether the MS. throws any fresh light on that history, or whether it is simply a transcript of some well-known chronicle, and he therefore gives the following rough summary for the benefit of persons interested in the history of Kirkstall. Mr. W. D. Lancaster, to whom the first sentence or two of this summary have been shewn, thinks the MS. must be a transcript of one in the Bodleian Library, which is now being prepared for the press for the Thoresby Society. The MS. begins:—

Factum est post mortem Henrici regis Angliæ filii Willelmi cognomento Bastard, &c. (3 pages). Then,

NOTES AND QUERIES.

Ravenstonedale Wills. Where are the Ravenstonedale Wills prior to 1748 kept? They are not at Carlisle or in London: is it possible they are in the Muniment Room at Lowther Castle? Can anyone supply information upon this point? WILFRED WILSON.

West Riding Deeds Registry. Does the West Riding Registry of Deeds at Wakefield supply information as to transfer of landed property by inheritance or purchase, which can easily be ascertained and is helpful for genealogical purposes? W. W.

Hansom. In the last Northern Genealogist, p. 99, there is an omission making it look as though Thomas Hansam or Hanson was ordained priest twice! After "and on 16th April, 1630" ought to follow was sent on the English Mission. JOSEPH S. HANSOM.

Goulton. Wanted the parentage and place of birth of Christopher Goulton, who in 1648 was a merchant adventurer, living in Whitefriargate, Hull. His first wife was Jane, daughter of Christopher Chapman, by Elizabeth his wife, sister of Henry Bernard, of Hull. His second wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas Denman, an Alderman of Hull, and his third wife Elizabeth Stavely, of Bessingby, near Bridlington. In the latter part of his life, he possessed a copyhold called Highthorne, in the parish of Carlton Husthwaite, near Easingwold, and also some freehold property at Bessingby. He seems to have died about the year 1690. J. G. C.

George Abbott, M.P. for Tamworth in the Long Parliament. He was son-in-law of the well-known parliamentary colonel, William Purefoy, and died 2 Feb., 1648, aged 44; M.I. at Caldicott, co. Warwick. He is said to have been either the son or grandson of Sir Thomas Abbott, of Easington, co. York. Can this be substantiated? Who was Sir Thomas Abbott, and when was he knighted? A "George Abbott, son and heir of George Abbott, of the City of York, esq.," was admitted to Gray's Inn, 10 May, 1626. Was he the after M.P. for Tamworth?

W. D. Pink,

Leigh, Lancashire.

Robert Redmayne, LL.D., was born about 1551, and was appointed Chancellor of the Diocese of Norwich in 1588, which office he filled till his death in 1625. In March 1593-4, he married Dorothy (d. 1645), query née Mason, the widow of John Rolfe, esq., of Heacham, Norfolk, by whom he had an only daughter and heiress Frances, who became the wife of Sir John Burrell, of Dowsby, co. Lincoln. Dr. Redmayne was buried in Heacham Church, and the following arms appear on his monument:—1 and 4 Gules, 3 cushions ermine, tasselled or (Redmayne); 2, Gules, a lion rampant argent [charged with a fleur-de-lis azure] (Aldeburgh); 3, Azure, a fesse between 3 martlets argent (query Aislaby). The arms in the second quarter show Dr. Redmayne to have been a descendant of Sir Richard Redmayne, of Levens (d. 1426), co. Westmoreland, Speaker of the House of Commons, and Elizabeth his wife (d. 1434), dau. and eventually co-heiress of William de Aldeburgh, Baron Aldeburgh (d. 2 Ric. ii.).

Dr. Redmayne's M.I. states that he was connected with Lancashire, and we know that he was appointed Chancellor during the episcopate of Edmund Scamler, who was a native of Gressingham in that country. A descendant, perhaps a son, of Sir Richard Redmayne, was settled at Thornton, co. Lancaster, and from him descended the Redmaynes of Gressingham. If Dr. Redmayne is the Robert Redmayne who was elected a Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, in 1577, he was also connected with Richmondshire, and it is observable that the Aislaby's were a Richmondshire family. Can any reader of the Northern Genealogist help me to trace Dr. Redmayne's ancestry, and especially to ascertain his title to quarter the arms which appear in the 3rd quarter of his shield?

C. W. Foster,

Epworth, Doncaster.

Burrell and Dawtrey. Richard Burrell, citizen and grocer of London, and lord of the manors of Dowsby and Graby, co. Lincoln, was born at Kilburn, co. York, about 1550 A.D., and his arms show that he was probably a descendant of the Burrells of Broomepark, co. Northumberland. He died 22 Oct., 1629, and a commission was granted, 25 May, 1666, to his granddaughter (i.e. the daughter of his son, Sir John Burrell, of Dowsby), Dorothy Dawtry (or Dealtry), of co. York, to administer the goods not yet administered by Sir John Burrell, the son of the deceased and the executor of his Will (York Probate Registry). Dorothy Dawtry's mother was Frances, dau. of Dr. Robert Redmayne, and it may be mentioned that John Redmayne (living 1584), of Fulford, co. York, married Frances dau. of ..... Dawtry, of co. Suffolk. I shall be grateful for any information about the ancestry of Richard Burrell, or about the Dawtry marriage. C. W. FOSTER, Epworth, Doncaster.

Noble. Possibly some reader may be able to say who the writer of the following curious letter was, and what was the "three dayes wonder" to which it refers. The letter was amongst a heap of rubbish in the Registry of the Bishop of Lincoln.

MY DEAR LOVE,

After I had writ to you by John Ffenwick, I received yors by Williams at which I am aboundantly concerned, especially because it came soe late that I could not possibly come to Osberton, therefore, I have writ to Mr. White (without takeing notice of your letter) to pacifie the matter till I come, who I doubt not will doe it. I pray the my Dear be not discouraged at what is said; I ingage to the that I will take all blame off from the when I come, and to that purpose I have writ to Mr. White. Pray the therefore be content, my Dear, and when I come I will end all contention. I am in very great hast, and can write noe more, but assure the that I am

Thy loveing and faithfull husband till death,

Nov. 9th, 1683. CHRISTO. NOBLE.

Pray present my service to yor cosen Bettie. Be not discoraged my Dear, this will be but a three dayes wonder.

On the back of this letter, which is very faded and stained, is a draft of part of another letter, probably of a few years' later date, written in an illiterate hand, which may possibly furnish a clue to the authorship of the first, unless the paper had then already passed out of the hands of Mr. Noble's family. The draft is as follows:—

HONORED AUNT,

I hop you will be plesed to pardon my long silence, hoping you know before now what oblegacion I have line under, comeing as it wear in to a new world; but I thank god I have lite of a true loving man wich will helpe to ..... the trubels that atend this [? astat]. He ..... will make me a joynter of therty pound a year. All frends hear are very well pleasd with him, and wishes that all the rest of my cosens was so well provided for as I am, which I have great caus to bles God for his good nes to me in providing so richly for me, which is beyond my desart, for he is so well qualifide and sta..... he will be father, gardein, and husband, all in one .....

The draft breaks off abruptly here. Endorsed—"Mr. Noble's Letter, 1683."

Fairfax. £15 reward will be paid by the Editor for evidence (satisfactory to the College of Arms) of the identity of Joseph Fairfax, bapt. at Saxton, co. York, March 27, 1706, with Joseph Fairfax, buried at Windlesham, co. Surrey, June 22, 1783, aged 77. A reward will also be paid for any information as to the family, which may prove of service as a clue to the above.

Putnam or Puttenham. Nicholas, of Putnam Place, Penne, Bucks. (See Vis. of Bucks) left sons John, of Penne, and Henry, who was living in 1526. The will of Henry has not been found. He may have been of Eddlesboro or Woughton. A suitable reward will be paid for the finding and a copy of Henry Putnam's Will. Any early genealogical facts concerning the Blood or Higginson families will be gladly received, and if of importance and expense is involved in obtaining same, a reasonable amount will be paid. WILLS ENROLLED IN THE LIBER RUBEUS OF KINGSTON-UPON-HULL.

By J. R. Boyle, Esq.

The earliest of the Town Registers at Hull is the 'Liber Rubeus,' now known as "Bench Book II." It is a small folio volume, containing 140 leaves of parchment. The leaves measure about 12½ by 9⅝ inches. The volume is bound in two thick oak boards, which are covered with red leather—hence the name by which the book was formerly known. It was originally secured by two clasps, but these have been removed. On the first leaf it bears the following title:—

"Registrum de Kyngeston super Hull, factum anno regni Regis Edwardi Tercij sexto decimo." It ought to be mentioned, however, that it contains transcripts of many documents of considerably earlier date than 16 Edw. III.

Its contents are very varied, including Deeds, Fines, Ordinances, Rentals, Surveys, Inquisitions, Letters Patent, Miscellaneous Memoranda, and Enrollments of Wills. Of the last named class of entries, the following is an index:—

INSCRIPTIONS IN THE BURIAL PLACE AT TINGLEY HOUSE,

PAR. WOODKIRK.

In the 17th Century one of Cromwell's trusted officers, Captain John Pickering, lived at Tingley House, near Leeds. He was a godly man and held religious meetings in his house, and set apart a plot of his grounds as a burial place for nonconformists. This is still in existence, but five stones only remain. I imagine there must have been others, as I am told that a large number of human bones were turned up when a pond was dug there a short time ago. I had these five well scrubbed the other day, and send you copies of the inscriptions. J. W. MORKILL.
